Show details

Arts Alive! is a fine arts craft event. All artists and crafters must go submit an application. Because of this, there is a quality level that food vendors are expected to present to the public.

All trailers/set-ups must be kept clean. Vendors should provide at least one trash receptacle for customers' refuse.

Quakertown Alive! strives to provide a variety of food choices for the festival-goers. As such, we do our best assure that our food vendors are not offering duplicate menu items. Accordingly, we reserve the right to request certain items be not offered at accepted vendors' spaces should they repeat a previously accepted vendor's itmes.
